

Embrace Black History Month. Join us for a community workshop

The Black Social Economy: Boosting social enterprises, cooperatives and money pools among Black Canadians

Presenters:

Dr. Caroline Hossein,
York University.
Toronto

Susan Henry,
Community Investment
Alterna Credit Union.

Jessie Jollymere &
Alvero Wiggins,
Hope Blooms Halifax

Noor Din, Human
Endeavor, York
Region.

Dr. Kunle Akingbola,
Lakehead University
Thunder Bay.

Friday, Feb 10, 2017
2:00 -5:00 p.m.

York U-TD Community Engagement Centre
1 York Gate Blvd. Yorkgate Mall, Suite 232 North York, ON
M3N 3A1. 2nd floor, opposite from dollar store

Learn from this interactive workshop from leaders making social entrepreneurship a reality in their communities. Participate in a dialogue that looks at the meaning and development of social enterprise, explore how people of colour are co-opting resources, and get inspired by the history and potential for racialized people in social economy organizations.

Please Register by Feb 1, 2017 yorkcec@yorku.ca
416-736-5980

(Refreshments will be served. Space is limited)

Supported by: YUFA • Office of the Vice-Provost Academic • Tubman Institute • Jean Augustine Chair • York TD Community Engagement Centre • Faculty of Liberal Arts & professional Studies • Department of Social Science • BUSO Program • Faculty of Education • Department of Geography • Department of Humanities • The Centre for Learning, Social Economy and Work (CLSEW) • University of Toronto • Black Daddies Club • International Development Studies Program • BUSO Student Club

